

Divorcity and Culture in the Australian Workplace

Background on Age and Cultural Diversity

	Age Diversity	Cultural Diversity
Manifestation	Age groups	Countries of Origin
Example	Older staff members working alongside students or younger staff	International and Australian staff / students
Challenges	Communication and Technology	Language and Cultural Barriers

Similarities: Environment, Goals and Values - Offering and receiving quality education

Impact and The Australian Industrial Relations Laws

Positive Impact of Diversity:

Age	Culture
Maturity: experience,	International: perspectives and exploring
knowledge and wisdom	opportunities
Youth: enthusiasm, creativity	Local: knowledge and understanding of Australian

All individuals must be treated fairly and have equal opportunities: Age Discrimination Act (ADA) 2004 and Racial Discrimination Act (DDA) 1075

Strategies to Respond to Diversity Issues

Communication is key

 <small>

Age	Culture

Comparison with Vietnamese practices:

- Vietnam: Respect for Elders and workplace Hierarchy.

- Australia: Equality and Inclusivity.

Legislative Requirements

Both Age and Racial Discrimination Acts aim to provide equal employment opportunities (EEO), making it unlawful to, based on age or cultural background:

- Hire, fire, or treat someone unfairly
- Harass or bully someone
- Deny or limit access to services, resources or benefits

Fair Work Act 2009 provides safety net of minimum entitlements and fairness at work, covering

